

Image Bitwise Operations:

Students must upload a CPP file which can intersect two image files as discussed in the class (see slides, no. 64). In order to achieve this they must use bitwise operators, by accessing the bytes that are composing the pixels in the RGB color pallet.

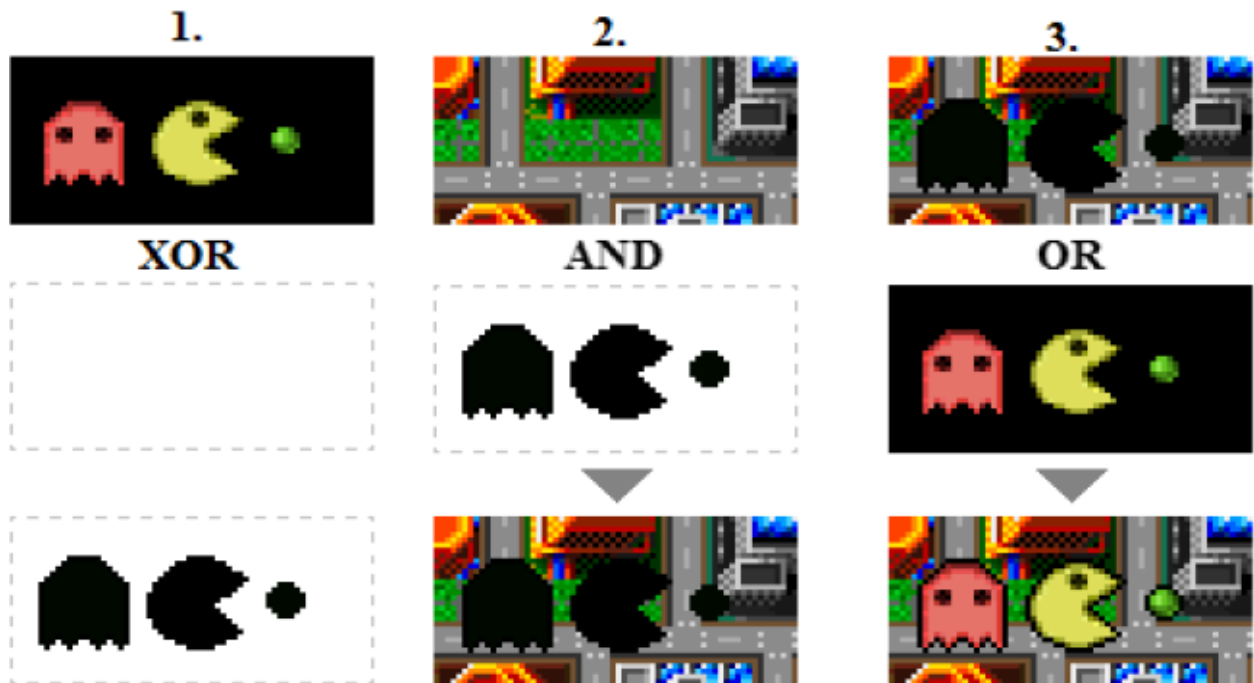

Figure 1 - Slide 64